

CREATE

YOUR OWN INCOME

THE CREATIVE ISSUE

Mowing lawns, getting a job, or babysitting aren't the only ways to make money this summer. Get creative. There are tons of ways to make money through your creative outlets. Think of something you like creating or doing and learn how to sell or charge for it. Develop your skills and earn some money at the same time. It won't feel like work if you're doing something you love. Here are some ideas to get you started:

Interest

What You Can Do

MUSIC

- Record a song
- Create sound effects
- Give music lessons

ART

- Take photographs/videos
- Paint or draw
- Create graphic designs

CRAFTS

- Sew clothes
- Create jewelry
- Make soaps

WRITING

- Write short stories
- Write articles
- Write blog posts

FOOD

- Make baked goods
- Write recipes
- Create plan-ahead meals

Bonus tip:

Make reels (short videos) on social media of you creating your art to gain followers and potential customers!

DID YOU KNOW?

Check out these creative teen success stories.

- What started as an Etsy shop for Zandra Cunningham at 12 years old, Zandra Beauty is now sold nationwide in stores like Target.
- Lil Nas X bought the "Old Town Road" beat for $30 from 19-year old producer, YoungKio.
- At 14 years old, Easton LaChapelle built a prototype for a robotic hand out of legos and fishing wire.
- Lorde wrote the song "Royales" in 30 minutes when she was 15 years old.
- Billie Eilish was only 13 years old when she released "Ocean Eyes" on SoundCloud.

MAKING MONEY

There are so many ways to sell! Here are few ideas to get you started:

- Charge an hourly rate for creative talents like giving music lessons or photographing events.
- Sell your handmade creations at arts and craft fairs or farmers markets.
- Sell your creations at online marketplaces or auctions.

Most fairs and markets, in person and online, will have rules and requirements for selling. Make sure you understand those rules before you decide to sell or sign any agreements.

NAME YOUR PRICE

You've got an idea on how to use your creative talents to make money. The next step is to price it. Don't just choose a random number. Use a Cost of Goods formula to find the perfect amount. Head over to the Name Your Price exercise at www.elementsofmoney.com to make sure you're pricing your worth.

330.452.9801

www.csefcu.com/youth
www.elementsofmoney.com/CSE

Federally Insured by NCUA.

Elements of Money SUMMER SOCIAL SCRAMBLE

Play Elements of Money's Second Annual Summer Social Scramble for a chance to WIN $250! Beginning Wednesday, July 17th, we'll start posting clues on our Instagram account. Follow the clues to solve the secret phrase and submit answers through Instagram DM. One entry is allowed per week. Visit elementsofmoney.com for more information.

Olympic rings: Painting, music and sculpture were once Olympic events.